EDUCATION

Keep curiosity blooming this spring with Woodlawn Arts Academy's STEAM-focused education programs. Our interactive classes blend science, technology, engineering, arts and math to make learning engaging and meaningful. We offer private tutoring throughout the year and continue to welcome students to our arts-based preschool program, soon enrolling for the upcoming fall session.

Woodlawn Arts Academy thrilled to partner to bring you Constructive Creativity! 4-H is the nation's largest youth development organization, empowering young people to reach their full potential through hands-on learning and positive experiences. Participants who register for this program will automatically become 4-H members, gaining access to discounted pricing on additional 4-H programs and the opportunity to participate in a 4-H fair if they choose!

CONSTRUCTIVE CREATIVITY

This engaging STEAM-based program invites children to learn through play as they build, design, and explore with building bricks. Each week, participants will discover the basics of engineering, architecture and creative design while working on projects inspired by a new theme. At the end of each class, builders will have the chance to share their creations and ideas with their peers!

- Time & Date: 4-4:45pm Mon, 4/13/26-5/18/26
- Instructor: Grace Wadsworth
- Location: Barn
- Tuition: $45

Full STEAM Ahead

This class will build on their critical thinking, problem solving, teamwork, engineering, and imagination. Each day we will face a new realistic challenge and the students will work to solve it with me. From bridges made with popsicle sticks to catapults, kids will not only have fun, but also learn about how the world works.

- Ages: 7-10
- Time & Date: 5:45-6:30pm Thu, 1/29/26-3/12/26
- Instructor: Sydney Segretto
- Location: Room 301
- Tuition: $55

Creative Writing

Calling all young authors! This class is for older children who are ready to put pen to paper and express their story. I will be there every step of the way to help proof and edit rough drafts as well as get the creative juices flowing. We will be writing novels and learning how to build story lines. Kids will be excited to walk away with their own book.

- Ages: 11-14
- Time & Date: 4:45-5:30pm Thu, 1/29/26-3/12/26
- Instructor: Sydney Segretto

MUSIC

Let music fill your spring at Woodlawn Arts Academy. From family classes to group lessons and private instruction, our programs encourage students to grow in rhythm, melody and artistic expression, whether you're beginning your musical journey or building on your skills.

Family Music

Spend time as a family interacting with music. Bring more than one child to the same class and let little ones watch and imitate as the older children help model the movements. We will incorporate music, chants, movements, and instruments. Up to two parents register free with each child registration.

How To Register

Registration for private music lesson students for the spring session will open at 9am on Monday, December 1st at Woodlawn Arts Academy. Call the office or visit the Academy to schedule lessons. Registration for private lessons is not available online. Time slots are not held without full payment or without financial assistance funding in place.

Times & Sessions

All private instruction is done in half-hour lessons, once per week, in eight-week sessions, with five sessions per calendar year. Instructors will not make up lessons that students have missed and will only offer make-up lessons in the event the instructor misses a lesson or the Academy was closed on the normal lesson day.

Tuition

Tuition varies according to the instructor's level, which is determined by their education and experience.

- APPRENTICE (A) level:
Have an associate's degree or a few years of teaching experience; tuition=$115 per eight-week session

- PROFESSIONAL (P) level:
Have a bachelor's degree or five-plus years of teaching experience; tuition=$135 per eight-week session
- SPECIALIST (S) level:
Have a master's degree or 10-plus years of teaching experience; tuition=$155 per eight-week session

Students must pay for the entire session in advance, and time slots are not held without full payment.

Instructors & Instruments

Our instructors teach students of various levels and ages. We classify those levels as Beginner (1), Intermediate (2), Advanced (3) & Collegiate (4).

- Nadine Appel (S): Piano (1,2,3,4); min. age=6
- Clea Arbogast (A): Piano (1,2,3,4); min. age=6
- Mardi Huffstutler (S): Voice (1,2,3,4); min. age=11
- Ramiro Martinez (S): Percussion (1,2,3,4); min. age=9 (no virtual lessons)
- James Miller (P): Guitar, Bass Guitar, Ukulele (1,2,3,4); min. age=6
- Nicole Oberg (S): Baritone/Clarinet/Flute/French Horn/Saxophone/Trombone/Trumpet/Tuba (1,2,3,4); min. age=9

If an instrument for which you would like lessons is not listed, please inquire with the office.

Supplies

Students are required to supply their own instrument, with the exception of keyboards, pianos and drums. Drummers should bring their own drumsticks. Students will be asked to purchase lesson books, sheet music and/or other materials. Students are expected to bring their music and instrument to the lesson with them, and to practice regularly.

Performance

At Woodlawn Arts Academy, we believe performance is an important part of the learning process. Our private music lesson students perform in two recitals each year: one in January and one in May. Other opportunities may become available throughout the course of the year.

College & Audition Prep Assistance

Our instructors are available to help with college prep, including auditions and recordings! Check with the office staff for information.

about WAA

Sessions

Woodlawn runs five eight-week sessions for most classes and lessons. Please check your class or lesson listing for exact dates.

Holidays

Woodlawn Arts Academy will be open most school holidays. Dates we are closed are listed on page 2.

Registration & Course Cancellation

Students may register for classes online, by phone or in person. Online registration is not available for dance classes, any private lessons or other select programs. Tuition for classes must be paid in full at the time of registration. Registrations are due one week prior to the start of the course. If classes do not meet the minimum they will be cancelled and all registered participants will be notified three business days prior to the first day of the class. A full refund or credit will be given should this occur. It is imperative to sign up before the class begins. See page 2 for specific registration dates. No early registrations will be taken.

Financial Assistance

Woodlawn is committed to serving all members of the community. Financial assistance is available for those who qualify. To apply for financial assistance, pick up an application in the office or download one from our website. Fill out the application and turn it in with the required paperwork. Financial assistance takes two weeks to process and MUST be in place prior to registration. Registration is not complete until payment is made and/or funding is in place.

Payments

The individual registering a person for a WAA activity is the responsible party for payment. It is not the responsibility of Woodlawn Arts Academy to request payment from a third party for the customer. Payment for an activity is required upon the completion of every registration.

For any purchase over $20, we accept cash, check, Visa, MasterCard, Discover and American Express. Please note: For purchases under $20 and special-order clothing items, we accept only cash or check.

promptly pick up your child, please call the main office at (815) 626-4278. Students must remain in the building until picked up.

For children 6 and under: At least one parent should stay in the lounge during any Woodlawn program in case of emergency. If you cannot stay with your child, please make arrangements with another family member for help and notify the staff.

For children 7 and older: Parents/family members are welcomed to wait during their artist's program, but it is not required. Parental discretion is advised.

Student Absence

Students are required to call the office to report absences. No make-up lessons will be given if a student misses a class.

Teacher Absence

If an instructor is unable to teach a lesson or class he or she will give 24 hours notice (when possible) and will reschedule the lesson or class during the designated make-up week at the end of the session. Class participants will be notified via text message and email. Phone calls will not be made.

Photos & Video

The Academy takes photos and videos of activities to promote programs. If you do not want your photo or that of your child used in that way, please notify the office.

Suggestions Welcome

The Academy is community based and wants to hear your comments regarding successes and areas needing improvements. Please share your comments with a staff member.

Nondiscriminatory Policy as to Students

Woodlawn Arts Academy admits students of any race, color, national and ethnic origin, sexual orientation and gender identity to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, sexual orientation or gender identity in administration of its educational policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, or athletic and other school-administered programs.

ADA Compliance

Should you or someone you know need support because of a disability to visit one of our facilities, or to participate in one of our programs, please contact us so that we may be of assistance. If you believe Woodlawn Arts Academy has treated you unfairly because of a disability, please contact us. Service animals that have been trained individually to perform tasks benefitting a person with a disability are allowed in the Academy's facilities. All service animals must be under the control of the user. A Woodlawn staff member may remove a service animal that is not under the control of the user. The work of service animals must be related to the disability of the person with a disability. Power-driven personal assistance mobility devices (EPAMDs), whose users must be persons with a disability, are also allowed in the Academy's facilities.

Location

Woodlawn Arts Academy is located at 3807 Woodlawn Road in Sterling. A facility of the Dillon Foundation, the Academy was built for quality, safety and efficiency, and designed for the pursuit and celebration of the arts. The Academy provides special lighting for optimum visibility when creating visual artwork, soundproof rooms of the highest quality for music lessons, specialized floors in the dance studios to protect dancers' joints, the J. Mark Beaty Performance Center for putting on performances, and much more! The Academy is proud to be an agency of United Way of Whiteside and Lee counties. Woodlawn Arts Academy acknowledges support from the Illinois Arts Council.

Refunds

Refunds or credit vouchers may be given in extenuating circumstances, and are granted at the discretion of the administrative staff. Any refund made after a program begins will be prorated and credited to the customer's account for use toward future Woodlawn programming. If enrolled in a Woodlawn program, a refund or credit may only be issued if you withdraw five business days prior to the first day of the program and the program has more than a minimum enrollment.

Inclement Weather

In case of bad weather, class participants will be notified of cancellations via text message and email. Phone calls will not be made. Closures will also be announced on social media. We will do our best to make up for weather cancellations.

Dropoff & Pickup

Please drop off and pick up your child at the appropriate time. Our instructors are only responsible for your child during their program time. We ask that all minors be escorted to and from class by an authorized adult. Many of Woodlawn's programs run back-to-back. The teacher and office staff cannot monitor children in the hallway. Please be prompt when picking up your child. If for any reason you cannot
